

Joshua 2
The Faith of Rahab

From a wall shame ...

- I. Out of Corruption
 - A. A Miserable Existence
 - B. A Moving Report
 - C. A Mighty God
- II. Into the Covenant
 - A. Recipient of Grace
 - B. Hero of Faith
 - C. A Model of Works
- III. To Christ
 - A. In the Family of God
 - B. A Matriarch
 - C. And a Beloved Child

... to the hall of faith.

Children, Listen ...

1. Where did the two spies in our passage hide?
2. What had the people of Jericho heard about YHWH God?
3. What did Rahab ask in return for protecting the spies?
4. What two places do we find Rahab's name mentioned in the New Testament?

Have You Met Boaz's Mom?

The Lord willing we will revisit Jericho in time (spoiler alert – it falls). Tonight, we focus on the amazing account of a citizen of that city. She is a woman who not only plays a clear role in the demise of the city, but one who turns out to be a fascinating character in her own right. Her story is about the providence of God, His mercy to sinners, and the redemption of a morally and spiritually broken life. This true life spiritual rags to riches story is significant in surprising ways in the history of redemption, but it also serves as an encouragement to every wretched sinner saved by grace through Christ. In addition, it informs the community of believers with reference to the way transformed sinners are to be received with love and fellowship no matter what background of unbelief and lifestyle they have been delivered from.